This detailed map of Central Africa covers the countries of Cameroon, Chad, and the Central African Republic. It features a grid system with latitude and longitude lines. Major cities are marked with black dots and labeled. Roads are shown as yellow lines, with primary routes being thicker. Rivers are depicted as blue lines. The map also includes labels for various prefectures and districts. In the top right corner, the text "République démocratique du Congo" is visible, indicating the location of the Congo River and its tributaries. An inset map in the top left shows the location of the main map area within the continent.
